

UR-CUSTOMER EXPERIENCE SALES TOOL

At UR-Designs, we focus on YOUR Business and YOUR Customers

Introducing UR-Customer Engagement (UR-CE), the first Dynamic Mobile Sales and Marketing Solution designed to be used by your customers while elevating your company's cross-department communication.

A comprehensive yet easy-to-use tool, UR-CE allows your dedicated customers to peruse, research, and make purchases on the go, on any mobile device with the direction of your sales team.

With a focus on the equipment industry, this unique product is the newest and most robust addition to the UR-Designs portfolio.

Are you satisfied with how each area of your business interacts?

How you operate internally influences your buyers' perception, directly impacting your company's sales and revenue. UR-Designs understands it isn't just about new products, but also identifying obstacles and transforming your strategies to operate more efficiently.

Innovation is the key to overcoming growing challenges, streamlining your business, and gaining that competitive edge.

Work Better. Work Faster. See Immediate results!

What will make your company stick out and grab the attention of your customers?

In an age of automation, a personalized approach shows customers that they're not just a number, but a true partner. UR-CE is a handy and powerful customized mobile solution that attracts and retains their loyalty. From initial contact to post-sale support, a positive experience is what brings them back, and that service starts with you.

Do you want to gain a deeper understanding of your customers' needs and behaviors?

As they navigate and utilize the UR-CE sales tool, you will get valuable actionable data that create a more targeted and effective approach to your sales strategies, keeping you one step ahead of your competitors. Distinguishing yourself in a crowded marketplace is not just an advantage but a necessity.

Turn your complacent customers into impressed and happy customers!

Our Customer Experience Sales Solution is the most unique and powerful tool in the market that focuses on your brand, story, and customer experience.

Start impressing your customers and be the envy of your competitors!
